Ozarks Color Show All About Pollsters and Editors

I have the word direct from a citizen of Rogers that the Ozarks color show in the Ozarks is at its peak. This might be the week-end you should motor into the mountains and see for yourself—taking along a camera and color film.

I got the word Thursday from V. F. Williams, former Hope citizen, who was in town with Mrs. Williams on a brief visit. Mr. Williams said this year's foliage was magnificent when he left Rogers Wednesday.

He will be remembered as having served the 'Frisco railroad as Hope agent from 1929 through the depression years. Later he joined another railroad on the east coast, finally becoming vice-president of the American Train Dispatchers Association of Chicago, with his office at Atlanta, Ga. After retiring he and his wife looked Hope over, but chose Rogers—which admittedly is a booming area for retirees.

I don't give much credit for President Nixon's election sweep to either pollsters or newspaper editors.

All the major opinion polls "called" the election perfectly. But this time no pollster could possibly miss. You have my word for it: In talking to scores of Hope people (unconnected with the official class) since McGovern's nomination last Summer I couldn't find one soul who was going to vote for him. I got similar direct reports from other parts of Arkansas. McGovern never had a chance—it was a shoo-in for Nixon.

The Nov. 4 issue of our trade journal for dailies, Editor & Publisher, New York, headlines the fact that of the newspapers polled, 753, 71.4 per cent, declared for Nixon; only 5.3 per cent came out for McGovern; while 23.3 per cent took no stand at all.

The inference that this demonstrates the omnipotence of the press is pure hog-wash. Your editor happens to be an outspoken one for nearly 50 years—and he's lost many more editorial fights than he's won.

This was a time when the people spoke loud and clear—the press wasn't leading; it was following . . . and that's the gospel truth.

If you want proof of this statement, take a couple of examples of editors vs. election returns right here in Arkansas. Arkansas Gazette endorsed McGovern—yet its Pulaski county went for Nixon 57,577 compared to 33,611 for McGovern.

In Saline county the Benton Courier endorsed McGovern—yet Saline county turned in a score of 7,982 for Nixon and 4,583 for McGovern.

Editorial influence? Piffle! It's the time and the public's thinking that calls an election shot.

What bothers me is the fact that 23.3 per cent of the newspapers polled by Editor & Publisher took no presidential stand at all. Collectively the press has a public obligation to print the news fairly, and an equal obligation to make fair comment.

What does it matter if an editor does come up with the wrong answer? To correct him is what elections are for.

I've been fighting the federal spendthrifts ever since the close of the second F. D. Roosevelt administration—but few took it seriously, until the resultant inflation gripped our land.

That's a message McGovern never got. But the people latched onto it—he was trying to out-Roosevelt in spending, for a nation now heading toward a 400-billion-dollar debt.

So they kicked the South Dakotan around, but good. Me? Hallelujah!

Barricades come down

The Highway Department barricades diverting traffic from Interstate 30 onto State Highway 299 near Emmet came down about 2 p.m. this afternoon with the formal dedication of the last gap of (8.9 miles) interstate highway in Arkansas. Gov. Dale Bumpers was scheduled to give the dedicatory address, and to assist Miss Arkansas, Debbie Hazelwood of Magnolia, in the ribbon-cutting ceremonies. Highway Commission

Chairman John Harsh of Magnolia introduced the highway commissioners and officials, and George Frazier of Hope was the master of ceremonies. Motorists are now able to travel the entire 313 miles from Dallas to Little Rock on four-and-six-lane highway. (The Hope Star will feature the dedication ceremonies in a picture page layout in Monday's edition.)

To fight ouster attempt

WASHINGTON (AP) — Jean Westwood has declared she will battle opponents plotting to ouster her as Democratic national chairman in the first contest of the post-election struggle for party control.

"Jean Westwood is alive and well and intends to remain on the job," she told a news conference Thursday, two days after President Nixon's landslide victory over George McGovern.

But her opponents argued that the massiveness of McGovern's defeat—he lost in 48 states—heightens the need for new leadership at the top.

Mrs. Westwood was McGovern's choice for the chairmanship and was elected the day after he won the presidential nomination.

After simmering quietly for weeks, the ouster attempt now is boiling toward a confrontation Dec. 9 when the Democratic National Committee conducts its first post-election meeting. The 303-member committee chooses the national chairman.

Mrs. Westwood, the first woman to head a national political party, asserted that she and Vice Chairman Basil Patterson "have no intention of resigning and I believe that we have the support of a majority" of the DNC.

But at the same time, Democratic leaders who object to the party change McGovern and his allies have come to personality were lining up behind such drop-Westwood leaders as Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington, AFL-CIO lobbyist Al Barker, former DNC Treasurer Robert Strauss of Texas, and some Democratic governors.

VN's Thieu sets new 'ultimatum'

SAIGON (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu told an envoy from President Nixon today that all North Vietnamese troops must be withdrawn from South Vietnam before an agreement to end the war can be finalized, a newspaper controlled by the president's office reported.

Thieu conferred for nearly two hours with Gen. Alexander M. Haig Jr. shortly after he arrived in Saigon to urge Thieu to go along with the cease-fire agreement Presidential adviser Henry A. Kissinger worked out with the North Vietnamese in Paris. Haig is Kissinger's chief assistant.

The newspaper Tin Song, which is financed by Thieu's private secretary, quoted a high-level source as saying that Thieu in his meeting with Haig insisted on the total withdrawal of all North Vietnamese troops from the South. Thieu reportedly said he would not accept any private agreements or tacit understandings on a pullout.

A spokesman for the U.S. Embassy said he could neither confirm nor deny reports that Haig carried a personal letter from Nixon to Thieu urging the South Vietnamese president to accept the cease-fire plan as soon as possible.

Meanwhile, the U.S. military command accelerated its planning for a complete American withdrawal from Vietnam in the event of a cease-fire.

Informants said American troop strength in Vietnam would drop below the 27,000 ceiling ordered by Nixon by Dec. 1 and indicated there might be further withdrawals of U.S. troops even if a cease-fire agreement is not signed by next month. Current U.S. military strength in Vietnam is about 32,000.

Informants also confirmed that the United States is sending additional minesweeping forces to join five minesweepers already in the Western Pacific. They would remove American mines from North Vietnamese harbors once a cease-fire agreement is signed.

Coinciding with Haig's second visit in six weeks, Thieu's government began a new propaganda campaign in support of Thieu's demands for withdrawal of North Vietnamese forces from South Vietnam, application of the proposed cease-fire to Cambodia and Laos and guarantees that there would be no coalition government.

Thieu's closest adviser, Hoang Duc Nha, Senate President Nguyen Van Huyen and other top officials have been giving a number of Western newsmen "background" interviews in the last few days.

Nixon's plan could lead to a noisy confrontation

KEY BISCAYNE, Fla. (AP) — President Nixon's post-election campaign to remodel the federal government could lead to a noisy confrontation next year with the Democratic-controlled Congress.

Press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said Thursday the President has a study requested from the Office of Management and Budget on his powers to reorganize the government by issuing executive orders.

Congress has balked at Nixon proposals to consolidate Cabinet-level departments, chiefly because of lobbying pressure from such interest groups as farmers, businessmen and labor unions who want to retain their special enclaves in the departments of Agriculture, Commerce and Labor.

Restoration of Washington is object of plan

Terming Old Washington in Hempstead County as the "state's outstanding historic preservation project," William E. Henderson, director of the state Parks and Tourism Department announced yesterday (Thursday) a plan to restore the town.

The state's proposal involves use of tri-funds (state, federal and private). Old Washington would become a state park, and that part of the city would be under the ownership and management of the Parks and Tourism Department.

Washington was founded in 1824 and is nine miles north-west of Hope. It now has a population of 290. It served as the state capital in 1863-65, when federal troops occupied Little Rock.

The town also says the Bowie knife was forged at Washington.

Henderson said the Parks Department had applied to the Housing and Urban Development Department for a historic preservation grant of $251,250. If approved, receipt of the funds still would be contingent on the legislature's appropriating matching funds.

Henderson said the legislature would be asked for $125,000 to be made available before June 30, the end of the present fiscal year, so the department could take immediate advantage of federal matching funds. The Parks Department also will ask for a $264,000 appropriation for the project for the next biennium.

Henderson said the Pioneer Washington Foundation would retain its financial resources and use them to help in the restoration. Admission fees also would be used, he said.

The first part of the plan calls for preservation and restoration of 12 original 19th Century buildings—the 1841 Court-house (which was the Confederate state capitol), the Block-Catts House (possibly the oldest two-story house in the state), the Stuart House, the Trimble House, the Monroe House, the Crouch House, the Carruth House, the Sanders-Garland House, the Royston House, the Methodist Church, the Presbyterian Church and the 1874 Courthouse.

The second phase is the preservation and restoration of the original streets and open areas, including two cemeteries, one dating from the 1830s and the other from 1860. The third phase is the reconstruction of original commercial structures that are now gone.

4-H members selling boxes of chocolate

Hempstead County 4-H members will be calling on local citizens to purchase a box of "World's Finest Chocolate," beginning today (Friday) as part of a statewide effort to raise additional funds for the expansion of county, district, and state 4-H work. The drive will conclude on Nov. 27.

George Richardson, local 4-H leader heading the Hempstead County sales campaign, says that the county sales goal is 15 boxes per 4-H member. Each box will sell for $1.

Plans are being developed in Arkansas for an improved and increased statewide 4-H youth program. Funds from this drive will be used to support the expansion of club and county programs, 4-H Citizenship Short Courses, district and state 4-H competitive activities, sponsorship of Arkansas delegates to the National 4-H Conference, establish a 4-H Congress, district and state adult and teen leader forums.

Hope senior earns Eagle award

Larry Patton, a senior at Hope High, "beams" as his mother, Mrs. Albert Patton, admires his "Eagle" award. Patton met with the Caddo Area Council Eagle Board of Review at Texarkana, and passed all the necessary qualifications to be promoted to the rank of Eagle Scout. This is the highest rank attainable in scouting and reached by a small minority of Boy Scouts. Larry, a delegate to Arkansas Boys State this year, has been in every phase of Scouting and is now president of Explorer Post 92 and Junior Assistant Scoutmaster for Troop 92; he is also a member of the Order of the Arrow (a group of elite Scouts). He plans to enlist in the U.S. Air Force during Christmas vacation and will receive a six-months deferment so that he can graduate from Hope High. He is the eldest of the five Patton children and presently works at the Town House Restaurant in Hope as a cook and plans to continue this line of work in the Air Force, thus carrying on a family tradition started by his father.

He is the son of retired M-Sgt. and Mrs. Albert Patton, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Palmer, all of Hope.

Rejected proposals are expected to surface again

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon is expected next year to revive several of his major domestic proposals rejected by the Democratic Congress in his first term. But the outcome may well be a renewed stalemate.

Nixon billed his proposals as a keystone of his "New American Revolution," but they quickly bogged down in controversy and bickering. In some cases, Republicans joined Democrats in opposing them.

The third Congress, which will be just as firmly under Democratic control as its predecessor despite the President's huge election victory, is not expected to treat the recommendations any more favorably.

Most important of the disputed measures are welfare reform, government reorganization, a national health-care system, and special revenue sharing.

Nixon announced last week in signing a Social Security bill that he would renew his efforts to achieve what he called "a work-oriented welfare program that will help all deserving persons on a fair and equitable basis."

The bill had contained his welfare proposal, known as the family-assistance plan, when it passed the House, but Republican and Democratic conservatives on the Senate Finance Committee joined to kill it.

Finance will have four new members in the new Congress but it appears certain conservatives still will control it.

The President's massive government-reorganization proposals, which would set up four new omnibus Cabinet departments, received little consideration in his first term. None reached the House or Senate floor for a vote.

Nixon has said he will continue to work toward streamlining the government. But the same forces which influenced the preceding Congresses to preserve the old-line departments are likely to be just as powerful in the next four years.

The President also has emphasized he will resubmit his health-care proposals which would work largely through private insurance firms.

Congress is expected to grapple with this issue next year but many Democrats, led by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, are pushing a much broader federally financed national health-insurance plan.

The one major part of Nixon's program enacted in the last Congress was a $30-billion general revenue-sharing measure.

But the legislators largely ignored the President's six companion special revenue-sharing bills in such fields as education, transportation, housing and job training.

The new session also is considered certain to see a revival of the battle between the White House and the Capitol over the budget and federal spending.

Investigation assured

WASHINGTON (AP) — Continued Democratic control of Capitol Hill apparently assures a congressional investigation of alleged Republican spying and political sabotage during the presidential campaign for opportunity to conduct the probe has begun.

The Senate general investigations subcommittee is the latest entrant. Under a developing shift in committee chairmanships, Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., is expected to head this panel, a branch of the Government Operations Committee.

Jackson, who sought the Democratic presidential nomination unsuccessfully, is out of the country, but it is understood the subcommittee staff has begun preliminary inquiries.

And one of the more influential House Democrats, Rep. Wilbur D. Mills of Arkansas, said in a telephone interview he thinks the investigation

State Demo Party is criticized

ROGERS, Ark. (AP) — Guy Hatfield of Rogers, who was defeated by Republican John Paul Hammerschmidt in the 3rd District congressional race, criticized state Democratic party officials Thursday for not helping his campaign.

He said not receiving the support of the state Democratic party was one of the main reasons he was defeated.

"They didn't come to my aid," Hatfield said. "Mr. (Brad) Jensen and the other officials of the Democratic party have no compassion for their fellow man. They're just out to take care of themselves."

Jensen is state Democratic party chairman.

Hatfield, however, said he was not through. "I've only begun to fight," he said. "I'm going to be looking down Mr. Hammerschmidt's collar and if he continues like he has in the past he will hear from me again in two years."

Family quizzed about 22 deaths

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — A possible link between an itinerant family and a bloody string of 22 kidnap-robbery-murders, at least three involving waitresses at doughnut shops, was probed today by authorities from across the nation.

FBI agents and investigators from as far away as Florida questioned the five persons about the grisly slayings dating back to 1971 in Texas, Nevada, Utah, Colorado, Kansas, Oklahoma and Florida, police here confirmed Thursday.

Federal kidnaping charges have been filed against the father and son-in-law of the family in the abduction of a doughnut shop waitress later found slain.

The five family members are now in jail in Santa Barbara County Jail and San Quentin Prison on convictions in a supermarket robbery and shooting of a policeman here last June.

They were identified as Sherman McCrary, 47; his wife Carolyn, 45; their son Danny, 19; their daughter Ginger McCrary Taylor, 22, and her husband Carl Raymond Taylor, 38.

Taylor and the elder McCrary, both transient laborers, are serving five-year to life sentences at San Quentin. The others are in the county jail. Taylor also was convicted of a Santa Barbara police officer who was shot in the head during the supermarket robbery.

The FBI in Salt Lake City Thursday charged McCrary and Taylor with kidnaping the doughnut shop waitress Sheri Lee Martin, 17, in the Salt Lake suburb of Kearns on the night of Aug. 12, 1971. Her body was found later on an alkaline desert in Elko County, Nev.

The murders of at least two other doughnut shop waitresses were involved in the investigation.

Colorado Bureau of Investigation chief John McIvor said Leorea Rose Looney, 20, of Thornton, a suburb of Denver, was reported missing from the Mister Donut Shop in suburban Lakewood Aug. 20, 1971.

Agreement does not extend amnesty

WASHINGTON (AP) — An agreement recommending prosecution of protesting Indians for the seizure and occupation of a federal building does not grant amnesty for damage and theft while the building was held, officials say.

Meanwhile, government officials said Thursday that damage to the Bureau of Indian Affairs Building during the six-day occupation totaled more than $500,000. They said the building would be out of operation for at least another week.

The last of the Indians, who were protesting government treatment of their people, left the building Wednesday night shortly after the deadline set down by a federal court order.

Thieu urged to accept plan

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Times reported today that a top presidential aide sent to Saigon carried a personal letter from President Nixon to South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu urging him to accept a cease-fire plan as soon as possible.

The Times quoted well-placed administration officials as saying that if the aide's mission is successful, Henry A. Kissinger could be in a position to conduct final negotiations on a cease-fire package with the North Vietnamese in Paris late next week.

The officials said that the sealed message was carried by Gen. Alexander M. Haig Jr., the President's deputy adviser on national security, who left Washington Wednesday to deliver the letter and conduct last-minute negotiations, the Times reported.

In Saigon, Haig met with Thieu for nearly two hours today. A U.S. Embassy spokesman said he could neither confirm or deny the Times report on the letter.

The Times said in the story from Washington that officials would not comment on the contents of the President's letter but said that Haig would certainly point out that in the last two weeks the United States had greatly increased arms supplies to help South Vietnam defend itself.

The fragrance of musk oil is becoming more and more popular because of the earthy scent. But for girls who don't like the feel of oil on their bodies, instead of applying directly to your skin try mixing a bit of the oil with your bath water. The scent will still be there and the oils will help moisturize the body.

Jr. Auxiliary slates bazaar

The lobby of the First National Bank will be the location for the annual Junior Auxiliary Bazaar to be held Nov. 14 and continuing through Nov. 16.

This year a new feature of the bazaar will be a children's table. Only children and teenagers may shop from this table of gift items. Items on the children's table will be sold for one dollar or less.

In addition to the children's table, a wide selection of handmade gift items, Christmas decorations and baked goods will be sold.

The proceeds will be used to fund various Junior Auxiliary projects aimed toward the betterment of the children in the community.

Helen Help Us!

by Helen Bottel

Lick the High Cost of Dying?
DEAR HELEN:

Would your readers please comment on the instructions for burial that my husband has written up and placed in the strongbox next to his will? He says he'll come back and haunt me if I disregard them.

He writes:
"I wish my body to be cremated immediately after death: no embalming, no dressing up in 'best clothes,' no display to mourners and, above all, no three-day wait. And no tears, please."

"I want no casket except a plain pine box or basket."
"I want no services of any kind, and as little expense as possible—preferably under $100.00 total. My ashes should be disposed of in secret and no record kept of location."

"Except for immediate kin, I want no one notified of death until after cremation."

"Remember me, please. I was alive, but don't pay pagan homage to a dead 'thing' that should be disposed of immediately."

Helen, how can I follow these instructions? People expect tribute to the deceased's memory and, more important, I would probably need the solace of knowing my friends cared.

The funeral won't be soon—my husband and I are in our early 30s—TRINA

DEAR TRINA:
Barring fatal mishaps, you two should have some 40 years to settle your differences. More important, in 40 years perhaps ALL funerals will conform to your husband's instructions.

Why don't you just wait a while and see?—H.
P.S. Comments, anyone?

DEAR HELEN:
I was going with my husband about four years, but it took a baby and a threatened paternity suit to finally get us married. He changed his mind about marrying me just two weeks before another lawsuit of mine was settled and I came into quite a lot of money due to a car accident.

It's been a miserable marriage, and he keeps after me all the time about money, but so far I've kept most of my settlement out of his clutches. Would you believe? I work, but he insists we put our paychecks in his account and he does out lunch and carfare money for me each week. He pays the bills and supervises the grocery shopping. He figures he gave our son a name, and I owe him. We aren't living as man and wife, though we're under the same roof.

My "accident account" is in another bank and he's hating a fit about it. He wants us to buy a home but I'm afraid if he gets hold of it, he'll just blow it on the horses and other gambling. I won't tell him where it is.

He said yesterday the money is community property because he married me before I got the settlement...And a husband has full say-so over how finances are spent. Is this true?—

BEATEN DOWN
DEAR B.D.:

A husband, in your state, does NOT have full say-so over his wife's income, but how much claim he has to your accident settlement should be determined by a lawyer. You may face a bitter fight in divorce court (which is where you're headed, right?)—H.

To The Citizens Of Hempstead County:

Thank you for the vote of confidence received on November 7th.
I pledge myself to work for all of the citizens of our district in a continuing effort to make Hempstead County the best place in which to live.

Indians lose to Pacers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Indiana Pacers went into Thursday night's American Basketball Association game against Virginia hoping to accomplish three milestones.

They wound up with two of them, but the third, Coach Bob Leonard's 300th career victory, will have to wait. Virginia survived Mel Daniels and Roger Brown both becoming the ABA's first 10,000 point scorers on the same night, and hung on to beat Indiana 134-126.

In the only other ABA game Thursday night, Utah stung the New York Nets 120-101.

In the only National Basketball Association game played, the New York Knickerbockers wiped out a 19-point halftime deficit and defeated Atlanta 101-99.

Daniels hit a pair of free throws in the fourth period to reach the 10,000 point plateau and finished with 17 for the night, hiking his career total to 10,003. Brown had a bit farther to go, and his jump shot field goal at the final buzzer gave him 33 points for the game and exactly 10,000 for his career.

But the plateau the Pacers wanted was Leonard's 300th coaching victory. And that's the one they didn't get. The weary Squires, who played Wednesday night in Denver, waited out a four-hour layover in Chicago and didn't get back to Norfolk until 11:30 Thursday morning, turned on a second half spurt to win the game.

A bit bleary-eyed, they outscored the Pacers 43-23 in the third period to pull in front for the victory. Julius Erving had 34 points and Jim Eakins 25 for the Squires.

Willie Wise threw in 25 points as Utah took over first place in the ABA West, one half game ahead of Indiana, by beating New York.

It was the seventh straight loss for the Nets, who got 16 points each from John Baum, Billy Paulitz and George Carter. Wait Frazier spotted the Knicks' comeback against Atlanta, scoring 35 points, 15 of them in the fourth quarter. Frazier also had 11 rebounds and nine assists.

Willie Reed started his first game for New York since last Nov. 11 but was scoreless in 17 minutes and seemed to slow the Knicks offense. He sat on the bench throughout the second half rally.

Crimson Tide to meet LSU Tigers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Alabama and Louisiana State are both unbeaten and untied but that situation won't remain after Saturday.

The two Southeastern Conference powers will play in a nationally televised football game that may determine the conference champion and which team goes to what postseason bowl.

The Crimson Tide, 8-0, is ranked No. 2 in the nation. Its wishbone offense, as run by quarterback Terry Davis, has rushed for an average of 278 yards and 33.1 points per game. Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant's defense has allowed just 223 yards total offense and 9.7 points per game.

Louisiana State, 7-0 and sixth ranked, is best known for its tenacious defense, which this year has held opponents to 221.5 yards total offense and 8.3 points per game. It has given up 91.7 rushing yards per game.

LSU Coach Charlie McClendon played under Bryant at Kentucky. He has beaten his old coach twice, in 1960 and 1970, but has lost to him six times, including five straight. Alabama won last year's game 14-7.

Elsewhere in college football Saturday, No. 5 Ohio State, after key injuries last week, plays Michigan State, which goes for another victory for now-resigned Coach Duffy Daugherty. Coach Woody Hayes' Buckeyes lost four players to surgery, including standout linebacker Randy Gradishar.

ASU prepares for Trinity

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) —

Although they don't have a game until Nov. 18, the Arkansas State Indians practiced for about two hours in pads Thursday following two days of rest.

The Indians have an open date Saturday, and will play Trinity Nov. 18.

"We have a lot of work to do between now and then," Coach Bill Davidson said. "Trinity throws so many different sets at you you can't get it all done in a week's time."

ASU will work in pads again Friday then have the weekend free.

Third-ranked Nebraska, after an opening loss to UCLA, has come back to win seven games. The Cornhuskers play Big 8 foe Iowa State, which is ranked 17th.

Missouri upset Notre Dame and Colorado and gets a chance for another stunner when it plays No. 7 Oklahoma.

Top-ranked Southern California is off this week but fourth-ranked Michigan plays Iowa. In other games, UCLA, No. 8, is at Washington; Texas, No. 9, is at Baylor; Penn State, No. 10, plays North Carolina State; Notre Dame, No. 12, plays Air Force; Texas Tech, No. 15, plays Texas Christian; Colorado, No. 16, plays Kansas; North Carolina, No. 18, plays Virginia; Arizona State, No. 19, plays New Mexico; Stanford, No. 20 tie, plays Washington State, and Yale, No. 20 tie, plays Penn.

Nicklaus needs a handicap?

TOKYO (AP) — Jack Nicklaus, the Professional Golf Association's Player of the Year, said Friday he would ask Japanese Prime Minister Kakuei Tanaka to give him a handicap when they play an exhibition match Sunday.

Nicklaus made the kidding remark in a television interview Friday after he was asked how much of a handicap he planned to give Tanaka.

"I should ask him (the prime minister) for a handicap," laughed Nicklaus, "since he is playing on his own home ground."

Tanaka is an avid golfer, and has an 18 handicap.

Winning streak remains unbroken

Razorbacks changing tactics

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — High-

risk stocks offer the lure of exceptional returns and the threat of huge setbacks. The same goes for high-risk offenses.

Arkansas abandoned its option attack after the season opener against the University of Southern California, partially because of the risk, and Coach Frank Broyles is having second thoughts about the decision.

"We've hurt our offense, its potential, by not running option plays," Broyles said. "We felt that the passing and options would make our offense doubly high risk."

Because of the Razorbacks' lack of an option play, opponents have been able to devise special defenses to combat the pass as Texas A&M did last week in a 10-7 upset of Arkansas.

"We have been handicapped because we've been unable to establish any kind of an option play, which ties the secondary down," Broyles said. "We took a lot of burden off the defense by not running options."

Broyles said earlier this week the fact that quarterback Joe Ferguson was not known as a running threat and fullback Marsh White was injured contributed to the decision to desert the option attack.

White, a 230-pound sophomore with speed, returned to action two weeks ago and is expected to make his first start of the season Saturday against Rice at Little Rock and Broyles says Ferguson "is not a bad runner at all."

"We're not going to be running options just to be running them, we will have them in our scheme for Saturday," he said. "We're going to try to take some of the pressure off our passing game."

The Razorbacks have practiced more on the wishbone attack this week than in weeks past. They have lined up with Ferguson at quarterback, White at fullback and Dickey Morton and Jon Richardson at halfback.

"We've worked on the wishbone to come off the goal line and to take it in," Broyles said. He says that with Rice's passing attack, the Razorbacks may find themselves deep in their own territory on several occasions.

Rice quarterback Bruce Gadd leads the Southwest Conference in passing and total offense and Ferguson is second in both categories.

Broyles says Rice has "lots of different formations, lots of different pass patterns and they execute real well."

Both performed exceptionally well in a 24-24 tie last year. Gadd hit 12 of 15 for 178 yards and two touchdowns. Ferguson completed 18 of 29 for 227 yards.

The fact that the tie knocked the Razorbacks out of the Cotton Bowl last year means "there will be no love lost between us," says Rice Coach Al Conover.

Both Arkansas and Rice will be trying to salvage a season. The loser will have no place to go.

"We've still got something to fight for," Conover said. "We can still come out a winner this season."

Rice, losers of four straight, is 2-4 for the season and has four games remaining. Arkansas, the preseason favorite in the SWC, has lost two of its last three games but is 5-3 for the season and still under consideration by at least two bowls.

Broyles says Rice has "lots of different formations, lots of different pass patterns and they execute real well."

He is aware that Rice's defense, which ranks last in the conference, should be improved with the return of linebackers Rodrigo Barnes and John Kelly, among others, from the injured list.

Arkansas will be without linebacker Danny Rhodes, an all-conference choice last year as a sophomore. Rhodes injured a toe against A&M last week and will be replaced by Scott Binton—himself on the injured list since the third game of the season.

"Last year our seven front people started in all 12 games," Broyles said. "This year there's been one, (tackle) Don Wunderly."

A crowd of more than 50,000 is expected for the 1 p.m. CDT kickoff.

Turnabout is fair play, so the Chicago Black Hawks shouldn't feel too badly today.

The Hawks, who had bunched six goals in a single period to beat the New York Islanders the night before, found out how the other half lives Thursday night when Philadelphia scored three times in the first 7 1/2 minutes and went on to a 5-3 National Hockey League victory.

In other NHL game Thursday night, Boston blasted Detroit 6-3 and Buffalo and California battled to a scoreless tie.

In the World Hockey Association, Winnipeg downed Ottawa 4-1 and Alberta rapped Los Angeles 7-2.

Rick MacLeish scored three goals for Philadelphia as the Flyers moved into a second place tie with Chicago in the NHL West.

MacLeish clicked twice in the first 6:18 of the game and then Bill Clement made it 3-0 at 7:33. The Hawks chopped that edge to 3-3 on goals by Jim Pappin and Dennis Hull, but MacLeish's third goal of the game restored the two-goal lead for the Flyers and they coasted to the victory.

Boston displayed some of that old fashioned Bruin offense, ripping Detroit. Scoring champion Phil Esposito scored his ninth and 10th goals of the season and assisted on three others for the Bruins.

Ken Hodge had five assists for the Bruins. Wayne Cashman, playing with a slight bone fracture in his lower back, and Mike Walton scored two goals apiece for Boston.

Pittsburgh Steelers:

When you're hot, you're hot

NEW YORK (AP) — Pittsburgh's Steelers as hot National Football League contenders ... sounds strange, doesn't it? As unusual as a Kennedy-Wallace ticket, or snow in San Juan, or scotch mixed with ginger.

But, there they are as No. 1. When you're hot, you're hot and the prediction here is for the Steelers to overcome a stiff challenge Sunday and chop down AFC West kingpin Kansas City 24-17.

Pittsburgh shattered an American Conference Central Division tie with Cincinnati by bruising the highly-ranked Bengals defense 44-17. It was the fourth straight for the Steelers, now 4-3.

Kansas City got untracked to wallop Oakland 27-17 for the Chiefs' first-ever victory in Arrowhead Stadium. Kansas City, 5-3, stepped a half-game ahead of the Raiders.

Franco Harris is one prime reason Coach Chuck Noll's troops have resigned from the NFL also-rans. The former Penn State star has topped 100 yards rushing in three of the last four games.

Ed Pedolak, Kansas City's key man these days, streaked for 118 yards against Oakland and grabbed a touchdown pass from Len Dawson.

With a 35-of-49 prediction record and 73 per cent, here's a game-by-game look at this week's NFL menu:

Minnesota 20, Detroit 14: You don't win in the NFC Central, you survive, and the Vikings, 4-4, have rebounded from that miserable beginning. A victory over the Lions and a Green Bay defeat elsewhere would tie them for the division lead.

Dallas 34, St. Louis 10: Cards' offense is superlunary and the Cowboys can't afford a let-up en route to a divisional rematch with high-flying Washington.

Washington 17, New York Giants 16: Larry Brown shredded Giant defense for 191 yards two weeks ago. Redskins to keep rolling and maintain heat on world champion Dallas in the National Conference Central.

Los Angeles 30, Denver 17:

With Roman Gabriel's arm remaining inconsistent, the Rams have turned to the ground, with Willie Ellison getting help from ex-Texas hero Jim Bartleson.

Denver's problems are only beginning with a tough schedule ahead.

Cincinnati 17, Oakland 13: Paul Brown must still be fuming over the Bengals' defensive collapse at Pittsburgh and my guess is that it'll come back to haunt the unsure Raiders.

Miami 30, New England 14: What's there to say? Jim Plunkett isn't throwing like the super confident kid of a year ago and New England's line doesn't make the path too wide for nifty runner Carl Garrett. Earl Morrall isn't throwing too well, either, but who cares when he can spin around and hand to Larry Csonka, Jim Kiick or Mercury Morris?

Atlanta 27, New Orleans 14: Falcons have fallen to back-to-back NFC West opponents, San Francisco and Los Angeles, and realize one more stumble will send them home for playoffs as usual.

San Francisco 24, Baltimore 20: It's a must for 49ers, now two games behind Rams in NFC West. Colts, 2-6, are looking ahead to next year while San Francisco is alive for 1972.

Houston 10, Philadelphia 3: No comment. Why make more enemies?

San Diego 28, Cleveland 17: Second second-rater in a row for the Monday night TV audience, but Chargers can make it exciting if John Hadl has one of his good days ... make that nights.

Sellout crowd expected at SWC showdown

By DENNIS H. FRIEDMAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

Just call it "Wipeout in Waco"—an unlikely showdown for Southwest Conference football supremacy between a team which wasn't supposed to have a quarterback or a fullback and another outfit picked to finish dead last.

It's the Texas Longhorns, seeking their fifth consecutive SWC football title, against the cinderella Baylor Bears who haven't won one since 1964.

A sellout crowd of 80,000 is expected Saturday in Baylor Stadium for the collision between the ninth-ranked Longhorns, overlooked in the preseason by most experts, and Baylor which has undergone a tranfusion of football miracle proportions.

Texas is 6-1 and 4-0 in SWC play while Baylor is 4-3 and 2-1. Only Baylor—and Texas Tech which has already lost to Texas—stand in the path of the 'Horns and an unprecedented fifth straight trip to the Cotton Bowl.

Baylor hasn't beaten Texas since 1964 but if you think the Longhorns don't respect the battlin' Bears of new Coach Grant Tufft then lend an ear to Texas Coach Darrell Royal.

"They have the ability to jump in there and play hard, tough, aggressive football ... They really come after you ... I think Grant has done a great job in handling his public relations ... he hasn't been boastful, yet he has a strong, positive approach. They've got their student body fired up and their players are enthused ... they're in a fighting mood."

Tufft has a poised quarterback in sophomore Neal Jeffrey, a raging defensive end in Roger Gero, a slick junior college transfer split end in Charles Dancer, and tough, North-South runners in Gene Wilson and Gary Lacy.

Quarterback Alan Lowry and fullback Roosevelt Leaks have turned Texas into another championship caliber team which Royal says has had to "fight for everything we get."

Royal says "When you have to fight for things you appreciate them more. I was a lot prouder of that new pair of shoes when I had to work and scrape to buy them. Now that I can afford them, a new pair of shoes doesn't thrill me a bit."

"Those games where you have to work hard for a win ... the games that you could lose in the fourth quarter, mean a lot more ... and Baylor has done that more than we."

The oddsmakers have installed Texas a 15-point favorite.

Tech, which is 7-1 for the season and 3-1 in SWC play, hosts Texas Christian in a regionally televised game at 11:00 a.m. in Jones Stadium before an expected 40,000 fans on homecoming.

The Red Raiders remember the thumping they took from TCU last year.

"They beat us worse last year than anybody we played," says Tech Coach Jim Carlen. "They just literally out-manned us. We are going to have to be ready for a top effort."

TCU will feature a new quarterback in the game, Terry Drennon who was moved from safety to juice-up the Horned Frog offense.

In other SWC games, Southern Methodist hosts Texas A&M and Arkansas entertains Rice. SMU and Arkansas are hoping to recover from losses last week to attract bids from post-season bowls.

Houston hosts Colorado State in a non-conference night tangle.

World Series money hits new record

NEW YORK (AP) — Fury Gene Tenace matched Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and others in hitting four home runs in a World Series, but his shots helped provide the Oakland A's with series shares higher than any payoff in baseball history.

The A's of the American League beat the Cincinnati Reds of the National League in seven games. Each player on the A's received $38,706.01 while the Reds each got $18,000.25, according to financial statistics released Thursday by the commissioner's office.

The previous high payoff was from the 1959 Series between the New York Mets and the Baltimore Orioles. The winning Mets each got $18,388.18 and the Orioles played up $14,944.21 per man.

Ten other major league teams received shares of the record-breaking 1972 World Series and championship playoffs gross of $5,167,675.50. The High school playoffs get underway tonight

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The beer commercial about having only one chance in life is untrue. Newport's football team is getting a second chance.

Newport lost to Wynne 20-7 in the first game of the season. Friday night at Wynne, the Greyhounds play the Yellowjackets in the first round of the Class AA playoffs.

"It's very seldom you get a second chance at anything," said Newport Coach Dale Counce. "That's what I've been trying to tell the kids all week. This is a second chance, a chance to retaliate."

Newport has won nine straight since the loss to Wynne and has been one of the most impressive AA teams in the state in recent weeks. The Greyhounds wrapped up the Region 3AA title last week with a 42-0 victory over Batesville in what was billed as a showdown.

"We feel like we've made improvements," Counce said. "We weren't really organized in the first game and we didn't have confidence in ourselves. Our confidence has improved so much. I feel like our kids feel within themselves that they can play Wynne real well."

When Newport opened the season, sophomore Steve Sink was at end and Joe Smith was the quarterback.

Now, Sink is at quarterback and Smith has joined Ed "Bubba" Michaels as a halfback in the Greyhounds' Wahbone.

"We knew Sink was a good athlete but we didn't know he would be that mature as a sophomore," Counce said. "This may sound a little boastful, but they are two real fine running backs."

Smith, at 5-foot-10 and 180 pounds, is quicker and Michaels, at 6-foot-1 and 178, is stronger. Smith has scored 12 touchdowns and Michaels 16. Both have gained more than 1,000 yards rushing.

Counce says Newport's defense has "really jelled."

The first-team defense hasn't allowed a touchdown in the last six games and has not permitted a touchdown in the second half since the Wynne game.

The defensive ringleaders are tackles Don Shelton, 190, and Ronnie He' s, 210.

Against Region 4AA winner Wynne, the Greyhounds must stop Isaac Baldwin.

"He broke on us on the second play of the football game," Counce said. "He's as fine a running back as you'll find."

In other AA playoff games, Region 1AA winner Harrison is at Mena, champion of 2AA; Morrilton, winner of 3AA, plays at 6AA champion Sheridan, and 7AA winner Magnolia is at Hamburg, champion of 8AA.

Morrilton, the defending champion in AA, appear to be in trouble. The Devil Dogs lost quarterback Ronnie Clark with a broken leg and then the second-team quarterback was injured last week when Conway halted Morrilton's 22-game winning streak. The starter Friday night is expected to be Donnie Parks, a 148-pound sophomore who has been playing end.

Sheridan takes a two-game losing streak into the playoffs — the first time the Yellowjackets have lost two in a row during Charles Whitworth's 10 years as head coach.

Magnolia, 10-0 for the season, is the favorite in the AA playoffs. The playoffs in Class A and B appear to be more wide open.

Marked Tree appeared to be the class in A but had to forfeit its District 3A championship game against Beebe after using a player the coaches said they were not aware was ineligible.

In Class A, Greenwood (10-0) is at Berryville (8-3); L.R. Robinson (6-4) is at Prescott (8-3); Lepanto (8-3) is at Beebe (10-0), and Smackover (7-3) is at Clarendon (7-3).

Farmington, 9-1 and winner of the Ozark Conference, was awarded a bye in the Class B playoffs as did DeValls Bluff, 9-1 and champion of the Grand Prairie Conference. The byes were assigned to conference winners having the best percentage in competition with Class B schools.

In first-round games, Danville (4-3) is at Murfreesboro (9-0-1) and Magnet Cove (9-1) plays Gillett (7-3) at Dollarway.

Sooners pin hopes on Joe Washington

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — Oklahoma Sooner football fans have visions of another Greg Pruitt dancing delightfully about their heads.

As is the case everywhere, Sooner fans have a habit of looking ahead and the apprehensions of losing Pruitt, OU's great right halfback, set in early in the season.

Then Joe Washington burst upon the scene.

Prior to the season, Washington was considered an unlikely prospect to be in position at this point of stepping into Pruitt's shoes next year. OU already had a fleet of talented sophomore backs ahead of him and he was only a freshman.

But Washington, a standout at Port Arthur, Tex., in high school, changed all that in a hurry. Through seven games the 5-foot-11, 178-pounder has rushed for 325 yards for a splendid 6.6 average and ranks third on the OU roster in that department.

He is among a group of super freshmen recruited from the Texas prep ranks last year. They include quarterback Kerry Jackson of Galveston who is the No. 2 quarterback.

However, it was expected before OU's opening game with Utah State that Jackson would see plenty of action as a yearling. Washington was somewhat of an unknown, especially to the fans, until Coach Chuck Fairbanks announced Washington was among the freshmen who would play with the varsity.

The speedy freshman did his thing right off the bat. Playing at halfback and split end he ripped off 86 yards in a 40-0 romp over Utah State and hauled in a pair of passes for 37 more.

Washington was used on the second unit with Jackson, who romped for 100 yards in his first game as a Sooner. The Washington-Jackson combination quickly was dubbed OU's presidential backfield, but Washington soon vacated the office.

Fairbanks changed his mind about alternating his backfields as complete units and Washington has seen considerable action with the first unit.

Two games ago, Fairbanks switched Washington from right to left halfback behind the talented Joe Wylie. He responded with some key blocks to spring Pruitt on long gains and toted the ball himself for 97 yards.

Hogs prepare for Owls

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles said Thursday the Razorbacks have worked hard all week and he thinks "we have a good game plan" for Saturday's contest in Little Rock with Rice.

The Razorbacks spent about 45 minutes Thursday polishing their attack for the Owls. "Our defense had to learn a lot in a hurry to get ready for all the Rice formations," Broyles said.

Arkansas captains for the game will be Jon Richardson, Tom Reed, Don Wunderly and Les Williams.

Facts about prostate surgery

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—Are there two methods for surgery for complete removal of the prostate gland — one with an irrigation channel through the abdominal wall with a hole in the bladder and another with a two-way catheter (one admitting irrigating water and the other tube draining as a regular catheter)? If so what are the reasons one is preferred over the other?

Dear Reader — You are really describing two different operations, both of which are common in individuals who have prostate gland problems. The prostate gland is located at the outlet of the bladder and when it enlarges too much it can shut off the flow of urine. Sometimes, because of the degree of obstruction and problems which result, it is necessary to drain the overdistended bladder through a tube which is inserted into the abdominal wall directly into the bladder. This operation is called a cystostomy. It allows free drainage and helps get the patient ready for prostate surgery.

The bladder can be drained by passing a catheter through the urethra unless there is too much of an obstruction and in this case a cystostomy has to be used.

Probably the most common form of prostate surgery today is through a specialized device passed just like a catheter to the region of the prostate and then portions of the prostate are removed with an electrocautery and the pieces irrigated out through the tube with salt water. Thereafter in the post-operative period the catheter is left in place to be used for irrigating out clots that have occurred because of the operation and to provide drainage. Once adequate drainage is established, the cystostomy tube is taken out and the abdominal hole closed.

Now, clearly not everybody needs a cystostomy and in fact many people have prostate surgery without it.

Another common method of removing the prostate is through an incision above the pubic bone and then by direct surgical means the prostate is removed from its location at the outlet of the bladder.

Dear Dr. Lamb — I have read and several people have told me of articles concerning gallstones in which the article stated that it is possible for gallstones to be dissolved by treatment. Thus, it would not be necessary to have surgical removal of the gallbladder. Can you give me any information on this?

Dear Reader — Yes, there have been several reports on this. The experimental work has been done at the Mayo Clinic, but I would have to add that it is still in the experimental stages and although early studies have shown that gallstones can be dissolved, this doesn't mean that everybody who has gallstones will be a candidate for such treatment.

Sometimes gallstones are caused because the gallbladder is diseased to start with and in these instances the diseased gallbladder is the main problem. I think it is too early yet to offer any recommendation about this form of treatment. It should be considered as in the experimental stages and hopefully will be helpful at least to some people with gallstones.

Recycling pays
NEW YORK (UPI) — Citizen recyclers have received more than $6.25 million for the glass bottles they have collected and taken to bottle reclamation centers in the past two years. The Glass Container Manufacturers Institute reported on the second anniversary of the industry's bottle redemption program that about 1.25 billion glass containers were turned over in the two-year period. Citizens received about a penny a pound for the waste glass.

Eternity

There is a term to grapple with . . . ETERNITY! Endless past time; endless future time . . . foreverness. That state or condition which begins at death. From everlasting to everlasting . . . ETERNITY. The time it would take the sea gull pictured above to empty the Pacific Ocean into the Atlantic . . . that would be Eternity. It is too big to understand but I know what it means for me. When this earthly house is dismantled, my soul will live on and on. That is actually what it means. But one question: Is my life worth all that? Is yours? Here is where the church can help you to be useful . . . to help bring in the Kingdom . . . to be an Ambassador for God . . . to prepare the world for His coming . . . for ETERNITY.

THE CHURCHES AND SYNAGOGUES OF THIS COMMUNITY ARE THE ONLY INSTITUTIONS WHICH HAVE AS THEIR MAIN FUNCTION THE TRANSFORMING OF HUMAN LIVES. THEY ARE THE SIGN BOARDS POINTING THE WAY TO GOD.

Sponsors of these messages urge faithful church support. Through these pages the appeal is for men to stand up and be counted . . . to combat communism on all fronts . . . to be faithful to God.

OUR PASTORS AND RABBIS ARE GOD'S SERVANTS WHO CALL THE SIGNALS AGAINST THE ORGANIZED FORCES OF EVIL. THEY INVITE YOU TO ENLIST ON THE SIDE FOR GOD . . . TO ATTEND CHURCH OR SYNAGOGUE.

People in the News

WASHINGTON (AP) — Postmaster General E.T. Klassen says he plans to hand-deliver to President Nixon a souvenir album of 1972 Christmas stamps. "We want to make sure he gets it by Christmas," Klassen quipped on Thursday during dedication ceremonies for the new stamps.

CHARLOTTE AMALIE, V.I. (AP) — George McGovern and his wife Eleanor have started a post-election vacation at a friend's hilltop home which overlooks Charlotte Amalie. The defeated Democratic presidential nominee and Mrs. McGovern arrived Thursday accompanied by Henry Kimelman, a St. Thomas Island businessman at whose home the McGovern's will stay. They plan to be here for a week to 10 days.

COLOMBEY LES DEUX EG-LISES, France (AP) — Mrs. Charles de Gaulle and members of her family have observed the second anniversary of the death of the former French president by attending Mass in the village church here. Mrs. De Gaulle was joined on Thursday by her son, Adm. Philippe de Gaulle, and his wife and by her daughter and her husband, Gen. and Mrs. Alain de Boissieu.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The Kentucky Restaurant Association has designated Colonel Harland Sanders as "Kentucky's All-time Outstanding Restaurateur." Sanders, 82, is founder of the Kentucky Fried Chicken Corp. He was presented on Thursday with a gold credit card, entitling him to free

Attacks escalated in Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — American warplanes escalated their attack Thursday, flying more than 700 strikes in the four countries of Indochina and doubling their raids in the southern panhandle of North Vietnam, U.S. military sources disclosed today.

Informants reported a substantial increase in supplies moving through the panhandle for the Communist forces in South Vietnam.

"We've increased our air attacks to match their increase in supply efforts," said one official. However, sources said the bombing halt above the 20th parallel, ordered by President Nixon on Oct. 22 to improve the climate for peace negotiations, remained in effect. They said it was not likely to be lifted even though the North Vietnamese are taking advantage of it to repair such supply lines as the two railroads to China.

Hanoi accused the United States of "a brazen violation of the commitment of the United States government to cease unconditionally all bombardments of North Vietnam." U.S. officials in Saigon said the North Vietnamese foreign ministry apparently was referring to the draft cease-fire agreement worked out in Paris last month but still not signed.

The U.S. Command reported that its fighter-bombers flew 180 strikes in the North Vietnamese panhandle Thursday, 50 per cent more than the average number of raids since Oct. 22.

More than 400 fighter-bombers strikes were flown in South Vietnam, Laos and Cambodia, sources said, while the B52 heavy bombers made more than 100 strikes in North and South Vietnam, Cambodia and Laos.

It was the beginning of the second week of heavy B52 strikes on both sides of the DMZ. U.S. sources said about 500 B52 strikes have been made in the region during the period, with 15,000 tons of bombs dropped.

Meanwhile, the United States continued its own accelerated supply buildup to beat the cease-fire. Cargo planes were arriving around the clock from America with tons of new and advanced military equipment.

In the ground war, the South Vietnamese command reported 84 enemy attacks during the 24 hours before dawn today, 57 of them by rockets and mortars.

ASTROGRAPH

BY BERNICE BEDE OSOL

For Saturday, November 11, 1972

YOUR BIRTHDAY TODAY

ARIES (Mar 21-Apr 19): Be prepared. Others may unexpectedly change their minds, causing you to alter your plans. Have options ready.

TAURUS (Apr 20-May 20): Some of your work could cause you unanticipated problems. It's nothing that you can't competently handle.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): A social faux pas could leave you in an embarrassing situation. Apologize promptly, so the other person doesn't take it too seriously.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Leave business matters in the business world. Discussing them around the dinner table could cause an unexpected outburst.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22): There's a chance you may have to make an unnecessary trip because of some chores you've neglected.

VIRGO (Aug 23-Sept 22): A speculative situation appears to have considerable value. Putting your money out before you have all the facts could be foolish.

LIBRA (Sept 23-Oct 23): You are overly protective regarding things that relate to family. A harmless remark from another could blow your cool.

SCORPIO (Oct 24-Nov 22): Weigh carefully information that comes your way today. Some has special personal benefits. Some is outlandish gossip.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov 23-Dec 21): Organize your material affairs. Put your budget in order. Resist any form of erratic purchase.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22-Jan 19): Don't forget to thank those who have given you special favors. You might lose a friend if you do forget.

AQUARIUS (Jan 20-Feb 19): Someone may throw your plans out of focus by asking for help to meet a responsibility. Be patient—they didn't expect it, either.

PISCES (Feb 20-Mar 20): Friends with a more sober outlook your best companions today. Erratic individuals could involve you in their problems.

NOW, AT TATE AUTO COMPANY YOU GET A GREAT NEW CAR

...AND A DEALER WHO VALUES YOUR BUSINESS.

What makes our new Chryslers and Plymouths such great buys for '73? Perhaps it's new features like standard electronic ignition. Or proven features like torsion-bar suspension and unibody construction. But most of all it's extra care. In the engineering, in the selling, and in the servicing. Come in and see the new '73 Chryslers and Plymouths. See what a difference extra care can make.
